EXPERIENCE

Category Manager - Fashion

SuperK, Bangalore, India
Nov 2025 - Present

Built the fashion category from near zero across online channels and a tech-enabled retail network of 3+ stores, launching 25+ subcategories and generating ₹3.5 lakh revenue in two months. Improved product margins from 22% to 35% through vendor negotiations, managing P&L and driving data-led merchandising decisions. Managed PO/PI coordination across 20+ suppliers and 10+ factories, achieving 95% on-time delivery and ensuring seamless assortment availability. Launched a women's western-wear brand that delivered ₹50,000 revenue with zero returns, demonstrating strong assortment planning and trend knowledge.

- Expanded fashion assortment from 5 to 25+ subcategories across menswear, womenswear, kidswear, footwear, and accessories by onboarding 12+ regional vendors, identifying assortment gaps, and benchmarking against value retailers like DMart and Vishal Mega Mart.
- Analyzed weekly sales performance, pricing benchmarks, and customer demand signals to generate ₹3.5 lakh in category revenue within two months.
- Negotiated vendor pricing, MOQs, and sourcing terms, improving product margins from 22% to 35% while maintaining competitive retail pricing.
- Partnered with marketing teams to launch fashion-led campaigns during New Year, Pongal, and Republic Day, increasing category visibility by ~22% and driving ~15% uplift in campaign period sales.
- Collaborated with operations and supply chain teams to improve stock availability for fast-moving SKUs, coordinating warehouse invoicing and inventory flow to reduce stock-outs by ~20% across priority products.
- Utilized Excel and Metabase dashboards for tracking sell-through, AOV, and margin performance; identified underperforming SKUs and implemented assortment rationalization that improved category gross margin by ~6%.
